

We're watching out for YOU!

FEA•R: Your local advocate

FEA-Retired offers former Association members a social and political home in Fairfax, where they can continue to benefit from Association products and services; stay involved in local, state and national politics to protect and enhance their retirement incomes and benefits; and stay in touch with friends who have also retired.

VEA•R and NEA•R: State & national support

Just like active members, you can expect us to look out for you at the state and national levels! Continue your access to NEA Special Services' impressive list of products and services as well as your subscriptions to NEA Today, VEA News and VEA Journal! You will also receive This Active Life, a NEA•R quarterly, to keep you up-to-date on items of importance to retirees!

FEA•R adds value to membership

As with active Association membership, when you join FEA•R, you are also a member of VEA•R and NEA•R. During its inaugural year, FEA•R membership and its benefits will be provided at no additional charge.

That means that, in addition to receiving all of the VEA and NEA level services, discounts and publications, retirees will have access to FEA's free will, discount legal services, dental/vision programs, and local discounts and programs.

Currently, VEA/NEA-R programs charge a nominal annual fee of $65. A lifetime membership is available for a one-time fee of $400.
