

Representation

You have the opportunity as a retired member to:

- Serve on the FEA, VEA and NEA Boards of Directors
- Run as a voting Delegate to the VEA and NEA conventions
- Participate in Retired Regional Conferences and other state and national conferences
- Address and pursue issues of common concern
- Stay involved in local, state and national politics to protect retirement benefits and advocate for issues affecting public education, teachers and support staff.

Retired? Retiring soon?

Join FEA-Retired

Keeping your benefits has never been easier.

After retirement your association can continue to meet your needs through a variety of money-saving member benefits and economic services the same as you enjoyed while an employed member.

Your association can still work for you.

Stay connected with fellow FEA, VEA and NEA members and programs. You will have opportunities to share expertise, talents and skills, protect and improve retirement pensions and health benefits and continue to be informed on retired and public educational issues through FEA-R newsletters, Fairfacts, VEA-R Connection, VEA Journal, NEA Today and NEA's retiree magazine, This Active Life.

FEA-R continually works as an advocate for you through organized political action and legislative programs. FEA-R is open to all FEA members—educators and support staff.

Your membership includes...

Legal Services

- FEA Free Will and Legal Service Program
(For FEA members prior to retirement)
